

CASA for Children

Since its creation by a family court judge in Seattle, Court Appointed Special Advocates has become one of the most effective programs of its kind.

Today there are over 950 CASA programs around the country.

It is a unique blend of private support, public need and the kind of people power that comes from more than 76,000 committed volunteers.

56 Children Served 38 Active Volunteers
Staunton, Augusta County, & Waynesboro

40 Children Served 21 Active Volunteers
Harrisonburg & Rockingham County

11 Children Served 8 Active Volunteers
Lexington, Rockbridge, Buena Vista